

93. Power of Government to appoint special health officers.—In the event of the occurrence of any unusual mortality or the prevalence or apprehended outbreak of any dangerous disease within the city, the Government, if it considers that immediate action is necessary, may, of its own motion appoint a special health officer wholly or partly at the expense of the corporation fund :

Provided that—

- (a) the duration of the special office shall not exceed six months ; and
- (b) the corporation shall not be bound to pay more than five hundred rupees per mensem on account thereof.

94. Contribution in respect of Government servants.—

(1) If an officer or servant serving or having served under the corporation is or has been transferred from or to the service of the Government or is employed partly under the Government and partly by the corporation, the corporation shall make such contribution towards his leave allowances, pension and provident fund as may be required to be made by him or on his behalf under the rules and regulations of the branch of Government service to which he belongs.

(2) Every Government servant employed by the corporation shall be entitled to salary, leave and other privileges in accordance with the rules and regulations of the branch of Government service to which he belongs.

95. Establishment schedule.—(1) The commissioner shall, lay before the standing committee for taxation and finance a schedule setting forth the designations and grades of the officers and servants who should in his opinion constitute the corporation establishment, and embodying his proposals with regard to the salaries, fees and allowances payable to them.

(2) The standing committee may either approve or amend such schedule as it thinks fit and shall lay it before the corporation with its remarks, if any.